Cecil Bykerk
Trustee on The Actuarial Foundation Board

Cecil Bykerk, F.S.A., M.A.A.A., F.C.A., RHU, was Executive Vice President and Chief Actuary at Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company, prior to starting his consulting career in 2004. Prior to his 25-year tenure at Mutual of Omaha, he was Director of the Actuarial Science Program at the University of Nebraska from 1975 to 1979. He began his professional career at Metropolitan Life in 1970. He has served as vice president and on the Executive Committee for the Board of Governors of the Society of Actuaries and on the Board of Trustees of the AAA. He served as President of the Society of Actuaries in 2008-2009. He is past chairperson of The Actuarial Foundation and is currently serving as a Trustee on The Actuarial Foundation Board today.

He was appointed to the Actuarial Standards Board in 2003 serving as Chair during 2006 and 2007. He served on the Board (1996-98, 2005-08) and as Chair of the National Association of State Comprehensive Health Insurance Plans (NASCHIP) during 1997-98, and is now serving as Chair of Finance Committee. He served as Chair of the International Actuarial Association's Education Committee from 1999 through 2004 and currently as President. Recently, he was elected to be President-Elect of the American Academy of Actuaries for the period October 2011 to October 2012 and then President from October 2012 to October 2013. He also currently serves on the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America's Board of Pensions. Since 2008, he has served on the Board of Trustees/Directors of a long term care company, SHIP.

During his career, Mr. Bykerk has been actively involved regarding Genetic Testing and Major Medical insurance, having made presentations to various professional, academic and regulatory bodies, and writing articles and white papers. Mr. Bykerk received his bachelor's degree from the University of Denver in 1966, and his master's degree from the University of Nebraska Lincoln in 1968.
