Thursday, December 11th, 2025

Virtual Meeting (Microsoft Teams)

Presentation: 12:00-1:15pm

Presentation Description: “Professionalism Matters”

“I hold every man a debtor to his profession”. What is professionalism, and how does it affect my day to day work and my activities away from my workplace?

Speaker: Godfrey Perrott, F.S.A., M.A.A.A. Godfrey’s principal area of practice is life insurance (financial reporting, product development and systems). He has also worked in casualty, health, pensions, and Information Technology.

He is a graduate of Cambridge University in England. He retired from the consulting firm Milliman in December 2007 after a 43 year career. He was a consulting actuary in the Philadelphia, Boston, and London offices of Milliman. He began his actuarial career with Milliman in Seattle in 1964 and served in the IT department from 1965 - 1986.

He was a board member of the US Actuarial Standards Board 2004 - 2009 (Vice Chair 2006 – 2009). He was a member, vice chair, and chair of the Actuarial Standards Committee of the IAA from its formation in 2010 to 2018.

He was a member of the ABCD 2017 – 2022.

He served on the SOA E&E committee 1978- 1989 (General Chair 1989) and several other SOA committees and task forces,

He served on the Life Practice, Professionalism, and Risk Management and Financial Reporting Councils, and the Board of the Academy.

Registration: As a reminder, members will be able to RSVP for the meeting themselves directly through the website. Here is a link to the online registration: Registration Form | IACmeeting.
